

CadintPCB

Question: How many times have you been designing a PCB with large BGA's or VME type connectors and wanted to know where you were on the part? How many times have you needed to know the signal name of a pad/land without touching it?

The answer: CadintPCB can display BOTH and you can turn them on/off or change the colors of each.